Note: All written questions are reproduced in the same format as submitted by the Respondent.

Question received on 08/23/2019 Lawmen's &amp; Shooters' Supply, Inc.:
Question:	Will you accept any substitutions for the Eleven 10 product?
Answer:	No, all products must meet the specifications as outlined in ATTACHMENT B, Section 3.0 and as revised or added in this addendum.
Question received on 08/23/2019 from 11B Contracting &amp; Procurement:
Question:	Does the holder need to have a flexible molle clip or a hard mount belt clip.
Answer:	The tourniquet holder must be a TekLok belt attachment that meets the specifications as outlined in ATTACHMENT B, Section 3.0 and as revised or added in this addendum.
Question:	All of the photos attached are for similar tourniquet holder. The holder is compatible with the Eleven 10 Shirt Shield. Do the holders need to be manufactured by Eleven 10 or can a similar model be provided? The model show has the same dimensions as the Eleven 10 product (5"H x 2.5"W x 2.25"D).            If needed I can supply a sample tourniquet holder to you for review. I'd be happy to overnight the holder to your office.

Answer:	Other models not specified in the ITB will not be considered and should not be submitted. All products must meet the specifications as outlined in ATTACHMENT B, Section 3.0 and as revised or added in this addendum.
Question received on 08/23/2019 from Henry Schein:
Question:	The choice of products, if intended to be used together is redundant and therefore unnecessarily expensive            The "Shirt Protector" is not needed with Tourniquet Holders that have a cover as the cover itself provides the protection.            Here is what is referenced in the price sheet:

Additionally, the cover has been discontinued and we're not sure there are 2,000 left in existence.

An alternative would be to purchase just the TQ Holder with cover. However, the discontinuation of the cover remains an issue.
