ADDENDUM #2
For Prospective Respondents for the following
Invitation to Negotiate (ITN): #07FS1801
Behavioral Health Training for the Child Protective Investigation Profession

DATE: October 10, 2017
TO: Prospective Respondents to ITN: #07FS1801
FROM: Amy Hammett, Procurement Manager
SUBJECT: Changes to ITN Document

Invitation to Negotiate Behavioral Health Training for the Child Protective Investigation Profession, ITN #07FS1801, is hereby amended as follows (the word clinical has been removed from each section):

Section 3.2.3 Scope of Service – Page 15

The successful vendor shall develop and deliver a behavioral health training curriculum designed to enhance the skill sets of the child protection investigation professional's ability to identify, assess and document danger threats related to behavioral health and provide consultation related to investigations in which behavioral health is a contributing factor to ensure critical thinking in decisions being made for permanency and to better assess the Caregiver Protective Capacities of parents. This curriculum should also increase the cultural competence and communication skills of staff to ensure that the best service is provided to the children and families in the child welfare system. The curriculum should include a combination of classroom instruction, observations, and a field component to include observation, feedback, and consultation. Over the course of the contract period, the curriculum should ultimately certify 45-50 subject matter experts as competent within the scope of the curriculum design

4.2.5.4 – Approach and Solution – Page 29

Discuss creative ways to deliver the instructional platform, observations and field application of the curriculum's core competencies.

FAILURE TO FILE A PROTEST WITHIN THE TIME PRESCRIBED IN SECTION 120.57(3), FLORIDA STATUTES, OR FAILURE TO POST THE BOND OR OTHER SECURITY REQUIRED BY LAW WITHIN THE TIME ALLOWED FOR FILING A BOND SHALL CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF PROCEEDINGS UNDER CHAPTER 120, FLORIDA STATUTES.
