Justifications

- ¹ Average number of days to complete lab service requests – The Department is focusing efforts on backlog reduction. The turnaround time for various disciplines is expected to gradually decline as the number of pending cases decreases. In CER and Firearms, this included completing older cases that are pending. Trace Evidence services are not initiated until other examinations are completed. Thus, performance in this discipline is dependent upon the processing time in other disciplines.
- ² Number of criminal investigations – The Department is committed to working complex, protracted high impact criminal investigations. Because of their complexity, cases are lengthy and labor intensive, resulting in agents investing more hours in fewer cases over a longer period of time. Also, the elimination of special agent positions due to budget reductions has had an impact.
- ³ Number of domestic security cases – This measure reports the number of major cases with a nexus to domestic security, which were not worked in conjunction with an FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force. The Department works numerous cases in conjunction with the Task Force which are not reflected due to security restrictions. The Department responded to all reported domestic security threats during the period. Additionally, calculation errors previously occurred resulting in slightly elevated data. The annual number in this report reflects corrected data.
- ⁴ Number of Public Assistance Fraud (PAF) investigations – Funding for the program decreased significantly in recent years. Additionally, the program is engaged in more complex criminal investigations which require more time and effort to investigate, resulting in fewer case closures.
- ⁵ Number of calls for Capitol Police service – Due to a proactive patrol approach by Capitol Police officers, the number of calls for service is less than the standard. Additionally, this measure fluctuates depending upon events scheduled at the Capitol.
- ⁶ Missing Child Alerts, Amber Alerts, and Silver Alerts activated – More missing child and silver alerts were activated than estimated.
- ⁷ Number of professional law enforcement certificates issued – Certificates are issued to individuals meeting training requirements for basic and post-basic programs offered at Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission certified training schools. FDLE issued certificates for all individuals meeting requirements.
