

DEPARTMENT OF JUVENILE JUSTICE
RESPONDENT RANKING FOR PRESENTATIONS
ITN #10000

DMS Class Code: 913-220

The Department publicly opened responses received for Invitation to Negotiation Number 10000 titled: "Residential Program for a low and/or moderate risk boy's ages 14-18 years old with innovations in delinquency programming.

As stated in the ITN the Department shall require Respondents to provide a Presentation as a part of the negotiation process. The Department has identified the following Respondents to present at the Presentations to be held on Tuesday, November 5 and Wednesday, November 6, 2013.

RESPONDENT NAME

Youth Services International, Inc.
G4S Youth Services, LLC
AMIkids, Inc.

The following list identifies Respondents who submitted responses to this Invitation to Negotiate and provides the total score and ranking for each.

RESPONDENT NAME	SCORE	RANK
Youth Services International, Inc.	345.89	1
G4S Youth Services, LLC	317.45	2
AMIkids, Inc.	289.81	3

Presentations to the Department by Respondents are exempted from public meeting requirements by s. 286.0113(2)(a), F.S. The Department will record all Presentations and make copies of the recording available upon request in accordance with Florida Statute 286.0013.

Respondents are required to use their own computer and audio-visual equipment to conduct the presentation. The Department will provide a screen or other appropriate material for the viewing of the presentation.

The Respondent must address each of the items referenced in Section XX, D., 2 (Presentations) Scenarios (impromptu responses to scenarios presented by the Negotiation Team), Respondents Timeline/Implementation Schedule and Fidelity Monitoring of Evidenced-Based/Promising Practices.

The entire presentation must be presented as a PowerPoint presentation, formatted as slides with notes, numbered in a logical consistent fashion. The Presentation must be designed to be presented within a one (1) hour timeframe regarding the system of care and other required tasks addressing item's a. & b. as outlined in the ITN, Section XX, D., 2, a. & b. Two (2) additional hours have been allocated for a question and answer period for the convenience of the negotiators. The Presentations may clarify but may not modify or materially supplement the prior written submission. Verbal exchanges between the presenter(s) and negotiation team members during presentations are intended only for the purposes of providing clarification in response to questions from negotiation team members, technical advisors and/or subject matter experts. The presentations will be evaluated and scored.

The Respondent may not bring more than six (6) individuals to the presentation.

Failure of a respondent to be available for a presentation on their assigned date/time will result in the response being considered incomplete and not considered for further negotiations.