1	PROCEEDINGS
2	(The agenda items commenced at 9:19 a.m.)
3	GOVERNOR CRIST: The Cabinet will reconvene
4	at 11 o'clock for the climate change workshop,
5	and I want to thank the CFO and our Commissioner
6	for doing great work and leading well in this
7	regard. I look forward to it.
8	Also, our next Cabinet meeting is Tuesday,
9	April 17th.
10	Now I think we'll hear from the Division of Page 4

11	Bond Finance, Ben Watkins. Good morning, Ben.
12	MR. WATKINS: Good morning Governor and
13	Cabinet members. Item Number 1 is approval of
14	the minutes of the March 13th meeting.
15	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Motion on the
16	minutes.
17	CFO SINK: Second.
18	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded.
19	Without objection, the minutes are approved.
20	MR. WATKINS: Item Number 2 is a resolution
21	authorizing the competitive sale of up to
22	$200 million in public education capital outlay
23	bonds to finance school construction.
24	GOVERNOR CRIST: Is there a motion?
25	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Motion on Item 2.
	O .
1	CFO SINK: Second.
2	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded. Show
3	it approved without objection.
4	MR. WATKINS: Item Number 3 is a resolution
5	authorizing the competitive sale of up to
6	$200 million in Lottery revenue bonds, again for
7	financing school construction.
8	CFO SINK: Move it.
9	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Second.
10	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded.
11	Without objection, Item 3 is approved.
12	MR. WATKINS: Item Number 4 is a resolution
13	authorizing the competitive sale of up to Page 5

14	$273 million of Turnpike revenue bonds and a
15	resolution authorizing the competitive sale of up
16	to $257 million of Turnpike revenue refunding
17	bonds. The new money component is for
18	improvements, lane widenings, traffic safety
19	management issues, improvements on various
20	components of the Turnpike system, no one
21	particular large project, more lane widenings,
22	toll plazas, traffic management issues, and the
23	$157 million piece is a refinancing transaction
24	in order to lower the interest rate on the
25	current debt that's outstanding.
1	GOVERNOR CRIST: Good. Is there a motion?
2	CFO SINK: Move it.
3	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Second.
4	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded.
5	Without objection, Item 4 is approved.
6	MR. WATKINS: And lastly, Item Number 5 is a
7	report of award on the competitive sale of
8	$195,055,000 in public education outlay refunding
9	bonds. The transaction was awarded to the low
10	bidder at a true interest cost of approximately
11	4.13 percent, and the overall savings to the
12	State resulting from the refinancing transaction
13	is gross debt service savings of approximately

14

$17.7 million, or about $840,000 a year. And on a present value basis, that translates to $11.8 million in interest cost savings on the

17	debt that was refunded.
18	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Motion on Item 5.
19	CFO SINK: Second.
20	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded without
21	objection, Item 5 is approved. Ben, thank you
22	very much.
23	MR. WATKINS: Thank you all.
24	GOVERNOR CRIST: Have a good Easter.
25

2	GOVERNOR CRIST: Financial Services
3	Commission. I think it's Steve Patron, the
4	general counsel, today. Good morning, Steve.
5	MR. PARTON: Good morning, Governor Crist.
6	It's Steve Parton, like Dolly.
7	GOVERNOR CRIST: Parton?
8	MR. PARTON: Yes, sir. Thank you.
9	GOVERNOR CRIST: Oh, forgive me. Like
10	Dolly. Okay. I'll never forget that.
11	MR. PARTON: Good morning to you, CFO Sink
12	and Commissioner Bronson.
13	CFO SINK: You don't look like Dolly.
14	GOVERNOR CRIST: No, he doesn't.
15	MR. PARTON: I won't go there. Item 1
16	GOVERNOR CRIST: Good for you, Steve.
17	MR. PARTON: I apologize, by the way, on
18	behalf of Commissioner McCarty. He would have
19	liked to have been here, but he is en route to Page 7

20	Washington, D.C., to attend an Executive
21	Committee meeting of the NAIC dealing with some
22	fairly significant matters that are up before
23	Congress or potentially winding their way through
24	Congress.
25	Item 1 is for approval of the minutes of the
1	Financial Services Commission for February 3rd.
2	CFO SINK: Move approval.
3	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Second.
4	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded.
5	Without objection, the minutes are approved.
6	MR. PARTON: Item 2 is for final approval,
7	or approval for final adoption of Rule
8	690-149.037. This is nothing more than a
9	technical amendment. It indicates the
10	appropriate electronic system under which small
11	group employers are to make rate filings.
12	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Motion on Item 2.
13	CFO SINK: Second.
14	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded. Show
15	it approved without objection.
16	MR. PARTON: Item 3 is for approval for
17	publication this is not final adoption. It's
18	for the publication of the rule, wherein a
19	hearing will be held in this matter and will come
20	back before the Commission for final approval.
21	It is for approval of publication of new Rule
22	690-157.301 through .304.

23	As you may recall, in the last legislative
24	session, a new law was passed, 627.9407(7)(c) of
25	the Florida Statutes, that basically was a	10
		10
1	consumer protection bill designed to protect
2	people who buy long-term care insurance from
3	escalating prices that occur as a result of
4	closed blocks of business. A closed block of
5	business merely means that the insurance company
6	is no longer selling that particular insurance
7	policy. The result of that is, as the business
8	ages, either due to claims losses, the business
9	deteriorates, and sometimes rates become so high
10	that people can no longer afford it.
11	Basically, what the legislation said was
12	that an insurance company cannot charge more for
13	a closed block of business than what it is
14	otherwise charging for new business in a new
15	policy type. But this rule deals with the
16	situation where in fact an insurance company is
17	no longer selling new business at all, so there
18	had to be a way to sort of cap the rate so the
19	escalation of rates for those closed blocks of
20	business for insurance companies that are no
21	longer selling long-term care insurance.
22	Basically, what the Legislature said was
23	that we were to determine what that rate would be based upon a minimum of 80 -- an average of

1	policies that are going to be regulated, and
2	that's what this rule seeks to do.
3	GOVERNOR CRIST: Is there a motion on 3?
4	CFO SINK: I move it.
5	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Second.
6	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded. Show
7	Item 3 approved without objection. Thank you,
8	Steve.
9	MR. PARTON: Thank you.

1 GOVERNOR CRIST: Administrative Commission.

2	Gladys, good morning.
3	MS. PEREZ: Good morning. Item 1 is
4	recommend the approval of the minutes of the
5	December 19, 2006 meeting.
б	GOVERNOR CRIST: Is there a motion on the
7	minutes?
8	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Motion.
9	CFO SINK: Second.
10	GOVERNOR CRIST: Moved and seconded.
11	Without objection, the minutes are approved.
12	MS. PEREZ: Item 2, we recommend acceptance
13	of the 33rd annual report and annual performance
14	contract submitted by the Division of
15	Administrative Hearings, and we have as a speaker
16	Chief Judge and Executive Director Bob Cohen.
17	GOVERNOR CRIST: Good morning, Your Honor.
18	MR. COHEN: Good morning, Governor and
19	members of the Cabinet.
20	This past year has been a year of some
21	changes and improvements in the way we do
22	business at DOAH. I'll hit the high points and,
23	of course, go into as much detail as you like.
24	But in terms of office automation, which has
25	always been a priority of ours, we have on the 13
1	adjudication of disputes side we have laurahed
1	adjudication of disputes side, we have launched the general counsel's agency page which allows
3	general counsels to go in and on one page, or
4	multiple pages, depending on the number of cases, manage the caseloads of all the attorneys working with that general counsel within the agency. It gives them a one click, one stop, check out the cases, make sure the lawyers working with them are meeting their deadlines and are managing their caseload well. That's up and running. It has been now several months, and we've had excellent feedback. We met with all the general counsels at a lunch and launched it, and they're enjoying the use of that new tool.

On the workers' comp side, we improved our electronic filing, but we found that a lot of the people weren't using it. We went out after the workers' comp convention last year in August -- in fact, we started there. We put on seminars there for paralegals, for attorneys, for the people in the offices who would actually be inputting all this information to show them that it really does work and that when they file something, it really is there and it shows up on the docket. They don't have to follow it up with a paper filing. And since we launched a series of workshops like that, we went from 300 filings in a month to 700 to 1,500 to 2,700 in January of this year. So it has really taken off in terms of the number of users of that system.

We've continued to expand our work for the non-state agencies. The Florida Senate

8	contracted with us this year to handle all the
9	claims bills. We appointed some ALJs as special
10	masters to handle the claims bills and get
11	everything done in a timely manner, and they are
12	there now. Yes?

13 GOVERNOR CRIST: ALJs?

MR. COHEN: Administrative law judges.

15 GOVERNOR CRIST: Thanks.

MR. COHEN: So our judges handled those cases, and they issued their reports to the Senate, and we were able -- even though we didn't get them as we normally would in August, we didn't get the cases until November, we got them all done before the February 1 date that we were given, and those reports are before the Senate. And I believe that some are actually going to be scheduled in the next few weeks before the Legislature leaves.

1	We have also increased our agency referrals.
2	The Agency for Persons with Disabilities sends
3	all the cases to us now, and we're excited.
4	We've been working with their new general
5	counsel, John Newton, and their new secretary.
6	We're pleased to see that Jane Johnson is the new
7	secretary there and a tireless advocate for
8	people with disabilities, and we feel that she
9	will work closely with us and help us move those
10	cases through the system. We've had a high volume of cases there, and that has really led to an increase in our cases this past year, but we're handling them all within the statutory time frames.

2.1

On the workers' comp side, we have -- based on the 2003 changes to the workers' comp law, we have seen a decrease in the number of petitions filed, but the number of the difficult, actually complex cases that go to hearing still remains pretty constant. So the judges of compensation claims are still hearing those cases on a -- the detailed cases, pretty much as many as they have over the past several years even prior to those amendments.

We have worked hard with our rulemaking.

November 1 of last year, the new rules were launched for the judges of compensation claims. They're in Chapter 60Q of the Florida

Administrative code. They are -- they have been pretty well received. I mean, we have not had any rules challenges. The lawyers are learning to work with them. Certainly the people in the offices, the judges and those who have to apply those rules, are working within the rule guidelines.

We have done some physical plant improvements. We have upgraded our space in some of the areas without moving, but just going in and renegotiating some of our leases in some of our spaces around the state. Right now we're in the budget, the Governor's budget as well as the House and Senate budget, to improve the space in Miami, which has been really our worst space over the years in terms of inefficient use of the space. The new space will allow the mediators to conduct meaningful mediation, have rooms to separate the parties, and mediation is really the linchpin to how the workers' comp system works.

We're now at about half the cases get settled through mediation, or 51 percent, but if we could get that up to 60 percent, it would move the entire system along more quickly. And Miami has been the logjam, and we really believe that this upgrade in the space there will do it.

In terms of our performance standards, we have -- on the adjudication of disputes side, we have pretty much exceeded or met all the performance standards except one, the one being the percent of cases that go to -- in professional licensure cases, the percent of cases that are completed within 120 days of filing. And I think we've figured out the reason why that doesn't happen. They have to be scheduled within 90 days. Of course, agencies, if their caseloads are too heavy, ask us for more time, and we give them more time. We're interested in due process, not in just meeting performance standards. But we've found that that 30-day period between the hearing and the order, when they order a transcript, it takes two weeks to get the transcript, then the parties want 20 days. Well, right there we've eaten up that 30 days, which pushes us over the 120 days.

We're not looking to eliminate or change that performance standard. It's a high standard.

We want high standards so we always have something to shoot for. But we're still -- we've still got 120 days. Sixty-nine percent of the cases were completed on professional licensing within 120 days, as opposed to our standard of 77 percent which has been set by the Legislature.

On the workers' comp side, we have done very well this year in improving the performance standards except for what is to me the most important one, and that is from the filing of the case until the final merit order is entered, 240 days, we are still behind in that standard. The Miami office renovations will help. That will make the space better, will make it ADA accessible, which it hasn't been. People have had to sit outside of the hearing room to have hearings conducted, and we've had to shuffle around. A couple of the rooms will accommodate people in wheelchairs, and a couple of them

20	won't. So the new space will, of course, comply
21	with all the ADA standards and will allow people
22	to have their hearing in privacy, in total
23	privacy without us having to clear the area so
24	they can be heard while testifying.

And at this point, I enjoy the job. It is a challenge every day. We have -- I was at the Statewide Nomination Commission yesterday for judges of compensation claims. We have four judges who are up for reappointment. There were several lawyers who came out to speak against some of the judges, and the judges were grilled, put on the carpet and had to explain. There were performance related issues and an accusation by some lawyers that one judge always rules for the defense. Of course, it doesn't bear out when you look at the cases, because they usually fall pretty much down the middle just in terms of -but that lawyer I guess had a bad record with the judge and was looking for some sort of relief that I'm not sure the Nominating Commission can give him.

But at this point, I offer the performance contract, our annual report, and will answer any questions you have.

GOVERNOR CRIST: CFO Sink.

CFO SINK: Judge, I'm sorry I didn't ask you this earlier, but in the case of -- I notice that

23	the workers'	comp part of	your business,	if you
24	will, is abou	ut two-thirds	of your budget.

MR. COHEN: It is.

CFO SINK: And 194 lawyers. Do you have an opportunity if -- and is this even appropriate?

If you see situations in which you believe that a case should never have gotten even to your level, that maybe we in our workers' comp division should have taken some other action, is there an opportunity for you to express opinions about ways that we can do our jobs better to perhaps reduce the amounts of disputes that occur?

MR. COHEN: Generally speaking, the cases that get to the level where they actually get to hearing, because a lot of times cases are filed because somebody has applied for benefits and the employer just denies them the benefits, or the carrier denies the benefits, so they have to file a petition. The benefits may get awarded two weeks after they file that petition, but they have to go through that process.

I'm not sure that -- I mean, I think that when the Legislature changed the law in 2003, it was to eliminate attorneys and people making big deals out of the medical-only benefits. If someone just needs to go in and get extended medical care, maybe a surgical procedure, and then they're finished and they'll be back to

1	work, the Legislature saw fit to say we're going
2	to limit the attorney's fees on that, so there
3	was no incentive for lawyers to drag those cases
4	out not that the lawyers were, but I'm sure
5	there were some, because the Legislature
6	certainly found in its intent that there was a
7	drawing out of the process. So I believe that
8	has in terms of bringing down the number of
9	petitions filed, that has achieved at least some
10	of its goal of getting those simple cases that
11	the carriers should work out or the employers
12	should work out with their injured workers and
13	not getting into a judicial type system.
14	CFO SINK: Okay. Thank you.
15	GOVERNOR CRIST: Yes, Commissioner.
16	COMMISSIONER BRONSON: Well, I would like to
17	thank you and all your judges for what they do.
18	I know sometimes we don't always agree with
19	administrative law judges. You know, every
20	agency has attorneys that advise us on issues.
21	And attorneys and doctors all seem to work the
22	same way. If you ask enough of them, you'll get
23	that many different opinions.
24	But I will say that what I've seen so far,
25	and we've had some very tough issues come before 2

administrative law judges out of our department, that what that really does is give us an idea, if

Page 19

3	we decide we're going to carry this on, what it's
4	going to cost the State of Florida to do that and
5	whether we want to jump that hurdle or not or go
6	to the Legislature. And what I see that comes
7	out of this is, if we need to go back to the
8	Legislature and ask for clarification on issues,
9	then we certainly have the option of doing that
10	so that it's clear next time.
11	So I think in the long run, I think your
12	group helps probably save the State of Florida a
13	lot of legal fees when it comes down and the
14	court system from being tied up with just so many
15	cases. So I would like to thank you. All of
16	your judges have been very that we've dealt
17	with have been very courteous and have given us
18	not exactly what we want necessarily, but what we
19	needed to know to do a better job.
20	MR. COHEN: Thank you, Commissioner.
21	Appreciate the kind words.
22	GOVERNOR CRIST: Thank you very much, Chief
23	Judge. Good work. Keep it up.
24	MR. COHEN: Thank you, Governor.
25	GOVERNOR CRIST: Appreciate it. Happy
	23
1	holiday.
2	MR. COHEN: Thank you.
3	GOVERNOR CRIST: Do we need to
4	MS. PEREZ: We need to vote on that.
5	GOVERNOR CRIST: approve that or
	Page 20

6	something?
7	MS. PEREZ: Yes.
8	GOVERNOR CRIST: Is there a motion on Item

17	because that item was settled by the parties.

18	MR. STIPANOVITCH: Item 8 is a request for
19	approval of the 2007-08 premium formula and
20	proposed 2007 rates, which is required for the
21	Florida Hurricane Catastrophe Fund to provide
22	insurance to the insurers for the '07-08 contract
23	year.
24	CFO SINK: I move it.
25	GOVERNOR CRIST: I second it. Without
	21
1	objection, Item 8 is approved.
2	MR. STIPANOVITCH: Item Number 9 is a
3	request for approval of and authority to file a
4	notice of proposed rulemaking for Rule 19-8.028,
5	reimbursement premium formula.
6	CFO SINK: I move it.
7	GOVERNOR CRIST: I second it. Without
8	objection, Item 9 is approved.
9	MR. STIPANOVITCH: Item Number 10 is a
10	request for approval and authority to file for
11	adoption Rule 19-8.010, which is reimbursement
12	contract; 19-8.029, insurer reporting
13	requirements; and 19-8.030, insurer
14	responsibilities, including the appropriate
15	forms.
16	CFO SINK: I move it.
17	GOVERNOR CRIST: I second it. Without Page 24

18	objection, Item 10 is approved.
19	MR. STIPANOVITCH: Item Number 11 is a
20	request for authority to file a notice of
21	proposed rulemaking for Rule 19-8.010,
22	reimbursement contract, and to file for adoption
23	if no member of the public requests a rule
24	hearing.
25	CFO SINK: I move it.
	20
1	GOVERNOR CRIST: I second it. Without
2	objection, Item 11 is approved.
3	MR. STIPANOVITCH: The last item is a
4	request for approval of the appointment of Randy
5	Dumm to serve as chair of the Florida Commission
6	on Hurricane Loss Projection Methodology for the
7	'07-08 year.
8	CFO SINK: I move it.
9	GOVERNOR CRIST: I second it. Without
10	objection, Item 12 is approved.
11	CFO SINK: Governor.
12	GOVERNOR CRIST: CFO.
13	CFO SINK: Let me just make a comment that I
14	think the changes that we're making to enable
15	more insurer or to enable insurers to provide
16	insurance for mobile homes and manufactured
17	housing is really critically important.
18	GOVERNOR CRIST: It sure is.
19	CFO SINK: I know that there have been many
20	insurers who have an interest in manufactured Page 25

21	housing who have been concerned that there hasn't
22	been sufficient insurance available and that
23	there are companies out there willing to
24	understand that risk. And 20 percent of our
25	housing stock in Florida, 20 percent is in the 25
1	form of manufactured and mobile homes, so I do
2	want to just reinforce the importance of what we
3	did here today to enable this important sector
4	and these people who haven't had access to
5	insurance. And as you and I saw the effect of
6	the tornados in central Florida, it's just
7	something very important that I think we'll deal
8	with partially through what we did today.
9	GOVERNOR CRIST: I couldn't agree more, CFO
10	Sink. You know, we're both from the Tampa Bay
11	area. There are significant manufactured housing
12	units in our part of the state as well as others,
13	so thank you for your leadership on this. And,
14	Coleman, thank you.
15	MR. STIPANOVITCH: Thank you, Governor and
16	CFO.
17	GOVERNOR CRIST: Take care. We stand
18	adjourned until 11:00.
19	(Proceedings concluded at 9:48 a.m.)
